St. Joseph's Group of Institutions, Moolamattom

St. Joseph's Group of Institutions, Moolamattom, comprising St. Joseph's College (Autonomous) and St. Joseph's Academy of Higher Education and Research, is a distinguished centre of higher learning nestled in the serene high ranges of Idukki district, Kerala. Both institutions are proudly managed under the St. Joseph's Educational and Charitable Trust, Arakulam, which provides visionary leadership and ensures a strong foundation of academic excellence, ethical values, and social commitment. The Group is rooted in the rich educational heritage of the Carmelites of Mary Immaculate (CMI) and is dedicated to nurturing intellectually competent, morally upright, and socially responsible individuals. Established in 1981, St. Joseph's College has grown into a reputed autonomous institution offering diverse programmes, while the Academy, founded in 2007, extends the same legacy through advanced learning and research initiatives in a peaceful academic environment.

Inspired by the teachings of Christ and the ideals of St. Kuriakose Elias Chavara, the institutions uphold a value-based education system that integrates spiritual wisdom with modern knowledge. Located in the tranquil surroundings of Arakulam, the campuses provide an ideal atmosphere for holistic development, innovation, and lifelong learning. Through a wide range of academic programmes, co-curricular activities, and research opportunities, St. Joseph's Group of Institutions continues to uphold its commitment to excellence under the guidance of the St. Joseph's Educational and Charitable Trust, Arakulam, shaping future generations to meet global challenges with confidence, integrity, and a spirit of service.

Apart from the above, the institutions under the St. Joseph's Group of Institutions, Moolamattom, managed by the St. Joseph's Educational and Charitable Trust, Arakulam,
